By-Laws

OF THE GHANA TRANSPORTATION PROFESSIONALS FORUM (GTPF)

Article I: Membership

- Section 1: The procedure for selection of membership is twofold:
- (a) First, an individual or an agency may request for membership by notifying the Executive Board. Upon ratification, this individual becomes a full-fledged member.
 - (b) Section 2: Dues for this organization shall be determined by the Executive Board and ratified by the membership. New membership will be confirmed after the payment of dues. Contributions to fund special programs will be announced during regular meetings.
- Section 3: Membership responsibilities shall include
- (a) Payment of all dues in a timely fashion.
 - (b) Participating in all programs organized by the organization and collaborating in all decision-making processes.
 - (c) Taking the initiative in advancing any agenda that aligns with the goals of the organization
- Section 4: Membership shall be terminated or have their privileges reduced in cases of:
- (a) Failure to pay dues in a timely fashion. A 1-year lapse in payment shall be sufficient grounds for termination. Payment of any arrears will be necessary in order to maintain membership status.
 - (b) Dormancy within the organization and failure to participate in any of the organized programs.

Article II: Selection of Officers

- Section 1: The selection of officers shall be done by nomination by members in good standing and the nominee introduced to members at least two months before the election business meeting. Nominees shall be expected to provide a vision/plan of things they hope to achieve during their term. The officers will then be finally selected during the final business meeting at the end of the year.
- Section 2: The provisions for removal of an officer include a demonstrated continued breach of the roles outlined and the ability to attain a quorum in sync with this objective
